

Entering the New York Art World

A Workshop for Visual Artists

Do you know how to successfully talk and write about your work?
And get the right people to see and show it?
You should! Your work and career depend on it.

This workshop will teach you how to:

1. Write an effective Artist's statement
2. introduce your work to galleries and non-profits
3. Organize a successful studio visit

4-WEEK SESSION: THURSDAYS, JUNE 6TH-28TH 2012, 7-9PM
HOSTED BY PARTICIPANT INC., 253 E. HOUSTON ST.
FEE: $235.
OPEN TO ALL!

GUEST SPEAKERS will include: Ed Winkleman (owner, Winkleman Gallery)
and Heather Darcy Bhandari (Founder/Director, Mixed Greens).

"I just wanted to tell you how much I enjoyed the workshop. All the information was so pertinent and I think the way you covered the material was very well conceived and thoroughly helpful."
- Jessica Stoller

"I have really enjoyed the workshop -- it has been a very valuable experience." - Rob Raphael

ENTERING THE ART WORLD IS TAUGHT BY JANE HARRIS, A PUBLISHED ART CRITIC, INDEPENDENT CURATOR, SVA FACULTY MEMBER, AND FORMER GALLERY DIRECTOR. TO SIGN UP, OR RECEIVE MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT HER AT JANEHARR@BWAY.NET (SUBJECT HEADING: ARTIST WORKSHOP).